Morn 'till Night

Words and Music by
F. SHUTTLEWORTH

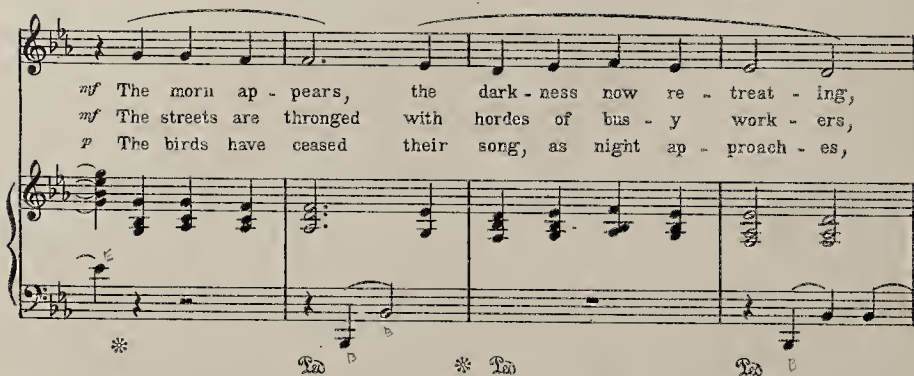

Moderato

Tw * Tw

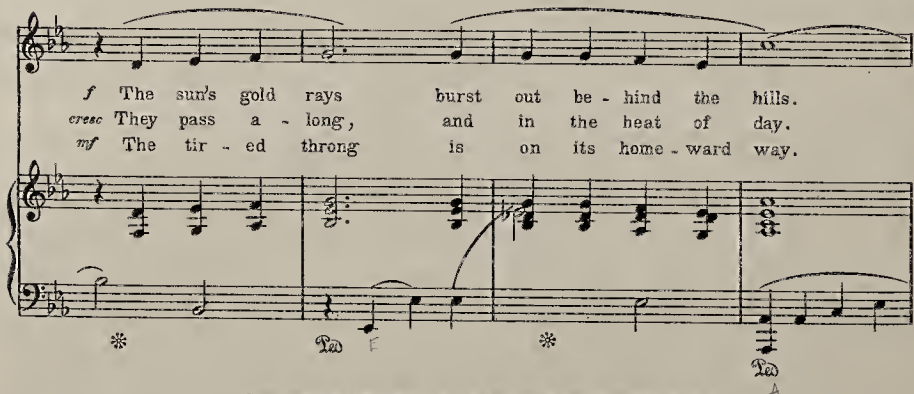

The piano introduction consists of two staves. The right hand plays a series of chords in the treble clef, while the left hand plays a simple bass line in the bass clef. The tempo is marked 'Moderato' and the dynamics are 'mf sostenuto' and 'dim.'.

mf The morn ap - pears, the dark - ness now re - treat - ing, mf The streets are thronged with hordes of bus - y work - ers,
p The birds have ceased their song, as night ap - proach - es,

* Tw D * Tw Tw D

The first vocal section features a single melodic line for the voice. The piano accompaniment consists of chords in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand. The dynamics are 'mf' and 'p'.

f The sun's gold rays burst out be - hind the hills.
cresc They pass a - long, and in the heat of day.
mf The tir - ed throng is on its home - ward way.

* Tw F * Tw A

The second vocal section continues with a single melodic line. The piano accompaniment consists of chords in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand. The dynamics are 'f', 'cresc', and 'mf'.

Today Mrs. Carrie Jacobs-Bond is known the world over as the writer of songs—words and music which have crept into the hearts of millions.—Edith Brown Kirkwood (in The Chicago Tribune).

P. HILDSOPHIA, painter, pianist, poetess, composer, interpreter, Mrs. Bond began the publication of her own productions and from the Bond Shop in Chicago there issues every year hundreds of thousands of her songs. . . . She was the first woman to issue songs in book groups and she is the only woman in the world—and perhaps the only person—who combines within her own shop the entire regime of the musician from the artistic, the poetic, the musically and the business view points.

Written by Edith Brown Kirkwood of The Chicago Tribune.

APPRECIATIONS . . .

"I consider your songs so distinctive that it becomes a pleasurable duty for me to sing them myself."

Sincerely your friend,

(Signed) David Bispham.

London, June 4th, 1905.

"While there may be more pretentious and more strict schools in our strong young country, no one has written more beautiful melodies or sung herself more completely into the hearts of American music lovers than has Mrs. Jacobs-Bond. The poetry, melody and sympathetic beauty of her songs are irresistible."

(Signed) William H. Sherwood.
Chicago, May 4th, 1904.

"I am very fond of violets and of sweet, fresh morning fields. That is why I like your little songs. You have the insight of the poet and the poet; you see deep. Simple things are difficult. There's work in the world for such as you."

Many thousands are awaiting your message."

Very truly yours,

(Signed) David Firsirotu Davies.

"Your songs have the power to charm that springs from a melodiousness at once natural and refined, a simplicity instinctively appreciable, and a simplicity as artistic as it is rare."

Sincerely,

(Signed) W. L. Hubbard.
Chicago, Oct. 4th, 1904.

Dear Mrs. Bond:

"I was perfectly charmed to hear your compositions sung by yourself. It has seldom been given to me to hear the poet, composer and interpreter all in one and I wish you all the success that you so richly deserve."

Very sincerely yours,

(Signed) Jean De Reszka.

"His Lullaby" is on Mrs. Schumann-Heink's regular program, which was first sung at Scranton Monday and again last night at Thane. It has met with profound success."

William Kapp.

Scranton, October 28th, 1907.
